All students and staff have a right to expect to function within the confines of the Marshall School District's buildings and grounds in a peaceful and safe manner. Any acts of physical and/or verbal threats or assaults toward a student and/or district employee are strictly forbidden and may result in disciplinary measures being taken.

Anyone who engages in an activity which disrupts the educational process, the school routine or who attempts to harass another individual shall be asked to cease such activity immediately by a teacher, administrator, or other adult. If the individual does not heed the warning, the police department may be summoned and the individual may receive a citation, or in some cases, formal charges may be filed.
