STUDENT CONDUCT

Students shall conduct themselves in keeping with their level of maturity, acting with due regard for the supervisory authority vested by the Board in all district employees. They shall be responsible for the care of school property and for acting with due regard for the welfare of others.

Students shall be expected to respect the rights of staff members and other students. Interference with those rights shall not be condoned. No student shall have the right to interfere with the efforts of the instructional staff to assist, disseminate and/or implement the learning program. Further, no student has the right to interfere with the motivation to learn or the learning activities and efforts of other students.

Each building principal, and his/her staff, is authorized to set and enforce reasonable school rules for the operation of the school. Such established standards of student conduct shall be included in student handbooks. In addition, teachers are authorized to set and enforce reasonable rules for their classroom.

Students are expected to abide by Board policies, including the Board's code of classroom conduct, and other established rules. Students may be subject to disciplinary action for violations of Board policies or established rules.

Marshall Public Schools shall not discriminate in standards and rules of behavior, including student harassment, on the basis of sex, race, religion, national origin, color, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation or physical, mental, emotional or learning disability or handicap. Discrimination complaints shall be processed in accordance with established procedures.
