PUBLIC SOLICITATIONS ON SCHOOL PREMISES

The solicitation of funds by outside agencies or groups on school premises is prohibited unless approval has been obtained from the Superintendent. Fundraising shall not interfere with instructional time.

Solicitors are not allowed in school buildings without first registering their presence with the building principal. No school personnel shall transact any business with solicitors while in school buildings without authorization from the building principal.

All fund-raising activities by outside agencies or groups conducted on school premises that involve students shall be conducted in accordance with state law and Board policies.
